After working as a law clerk since the summer of 2022, Caleb officially joined the firm as an Associate Attorney in October 2025. During his time as a clerk, he assisted with business income and revenue taxes for corporations in Philadelphia, organized trust and estate information and gathered discovery documents for review. Toward the end of this clerkship, Caleb began to focus his attention towards the firm's Litigation Group.

As he builds his practice, Caleb will continue his focus within areas of litigation, including commercial and construction litigation, the defense of product liability and toxic tort claims and insurance defense.
