After working at the firm as a law clerk for a few years, Jessica joined the firm as an Associate Attorney in October 2024. As she begins to establish her practice, she will be focusing primarily in the areas of Family & Collaborative Law. She is currently assisting clients with all areas of family law including divorce, equitable distribution, child and spousal support, child custody, and protections from abuse.

Jessica earned her undergraduate degree from Duquesne University in May 2021 before going on to the University of Pittsburgh School of Law, where she earned her JD in 2024. While attending law school, she served as the Business Manager of the Incarcerated Persons Legal Support Project and as a Certified Legal Intern at the Family Empowerment & Legal Access Clinic, as well as a mentor, ambassador and teaching assistant for other associations and divisions of the school.
