Madison R. Borkovich

ATTORNEY

PRACTICE AREAS:
Family & Collaborative Law

Madison joined the firm's Family & Collaborative Law Group in October 2026. As she establishes her practice, she plans to focus on a range of family-related matters, such as divorce, pre-marital agreements, custody and support, protections from abuse, and assets distribution.

Prior to joining the firm, Madison attended law school in Coral Gables, Florida, where she worked as a Certified Legal Intern for Legal Services of Greater Miami following an internship with MADE Hoops and clerkships with several litigation firms in Miami. Madison also served as a Certified Legal Intern and Children and Youth Law Clinician for the University of Miami, representing juveniles in a range of dependency (including guardianship and adoption), administrative, civil, and criminal proceedings. Her diverse civil litigation experience, family and dependency law involvement, and Transactional Skills certification in legal drafting will bring a comprehensive and contemporary perspective to the firm.
