Meg joined the firm in the summer of 2023, expanding our Estate Planning & Administration practice and adding a new office location in Oakmont, PA.

A third-generation estate planning attorney, she began her career by working with her father in 1988. With more than 30 years of experience, Meg has become known throughout the region as a go-to for a customized, tailored estate plan that accommodates the clients' current and on-going needs. Understanding the value in taking the time to really get to know her clients, she has earned the reputation of being experienced and straightforward, while putting her clients at ease.

She is well-versed in all areas of Estate Planning & Administration, but she tends to focus in the areas of wills, financial and healthcare powers of attorney, customized estate planning, estate administration and areas of real estate.

Meg is an avid speaker and regularly gives educational sessions on estate planning concepts. An active member of the community, she is a member of the Oakmont Chamber of Commerce, currently serving on the Board, and is the President of the Board of Directors for the Verona Oakmont Cemetery.
