Tristan joined the firm's Estate Planning & Administration Group as an Associate Attorney in July 2025. With a broad background in estate and trust related matters, he is experienced in drafting complex estate documents, including wills, trusts, powers of attorney, and advanced healthcare directives and creates customized estate plans based on his clients' unique needs and goals. He proudly delivers personalized solutions that ensure asset protection, tax efficiency, and long-term peace of mind.

Along with creating estate plans, he instructs low and high net-worth clients on the specifics of Elder Law, leveraging Medicaid/PA Assistance exemption rules and navigating through tax ramifications to protect family-based assets and succession plans. At a time of loss, he helps clients with the challenges of Probate & Estate Administration and Trust Administration.

While his practice centers around estate matters, Tristan's background includes work in real property issues and business law matters.
